

WAR PHOTOGRAPHS OUT OF THE ORDINARY, HERE AND ABROAD

Copyright Press Illustrating.

Officers of the Twenty-second Engineers of New York, who are getting their men ready at Spartanburg for service in France. Col. Cornelius Vanderbilt is in the centre of the five who are seated. His command is far advanced in training. Copyright International Film.

This man has been granted exemption to fill thirty-two public offices in a little English town where most of the men are at war.

Photo Central News

At Left—Salvaging an Austrian battleplane that fell in the Adriatic after an Italian attack. Italian engineers will study the wreck carefully for new ideas.

The Germans use discarded airplane propellers to mark the graves of aviators. These shown in territory retaken by the French. All bear the Iron Cross. Copyright Kadel & Herbert

Private Practice, No Matter How Profitable, Is Left by These Doctors at Call of Nation

Major Richard Derby, son-in-law of Col. Roosevelt, at Medical Officer's Training Camp, Fort Oglethorpe, Ga., where he is instructor. Photo Central News.

Above — Dr. F. W. Peet, now a U. S. surgeon.

At Right—Dr. H. M. James in uniform.

Surgeon Thomas Darlington, U. S. A., former Health Commissioner of New York city. Photos Copyright Alex. L. Pach.

Surgeon Alvah H. Doty, formerly Health Officer of the Port of New York, in the uniform of a Major.